

Each year, I nominate qualified students for admission to our nation's military academies. The process is merit-based, and you must reside in Minnesota's 1st District. Applications are typically due near the end of October each year.

Click here for an introductory letter , application and application materials check list . Please contact my Rochester office either by phone or by completing the webform with questions about the process.